SHORT ANSWER SECTION

Please answer these questions on a typed separate sheet of paper, stapled to the back of your application (behind writing samples and in front of art samples). Limit each response to 150 words or less.

1. It takes courage to criticize. What could the Smoke Signal do better (aside from catching grammar and spelling mistakes)? What changes would you implement to improve the newspaper?
2. How would you uniquely benefit the Smoke Signal?
3. Describe an ideal day.
4. Tell us about your interest in journalism. What do you hope to learn from being in the Smoke Signal?

MOCK ARTICLE

Write a 300-500 word mock article (format your page with two columns, 12 pt. Garamond font, single-spaced, and specify the number of words). It can be about any topic in one of the following sections of the Smoke Signal: News, Opinion, Feature, Arts and Entertainment, or Sports. Please specify the intended section. The article should also have a headline.

INTERVIEWS

Interview times will not be offered to all applicants; only those who have passed the initial application screening process will be granted an interview with the editorial board. The interview schedule will be posted online at www.thesmokesignal.org and on the outside of the M-2 doors. Once an interview time and date has been set, it cannot be changed.

Please state your preference:    Lunch _____    After School _____    Either _____
